Scholarship Dinner Dance

"Honoring our future"

Kenneth Armstead

President

On May 13th, the Executive Board held its Annual Scholarship dinner dance at the luxurious GreenTree Country Club located in New Rochelle. In the words of our Chief of Department Larry W. Davis Sr. "This is the first time, in a long time, that I have seen the Guardians throw such a magnificent event". The Guardians congratulate the following Scholarship recipients: Kyler Morris, Malcolm Williams, Dvon Eason, Amanda Kenny, Chris Fouch, Daphne Russell, and Kale Rodgers for the outstanding performance they have achieved in school and their communities. We also congratulate Chief of Department Larry W. Davis Sr. for his Lifetime Achievement, I.T. Assist. Commissioner Stasi Sotiriadis for Community Service, Deputy Warden Eliseo Perez for People's Choice, PAA III Eulalee A. Rice for Recognition, IGRC Program Administrator Gloria Lee for Civilian of the year, Captain James Bowden for Outstanding Performance, Correction Officer Crystal Davis for Commitment, Correction

Rodney Chadwick for Humanitarian, and Captain Kenya Elam for Woman of the year. In addition, we want to Congratulate Captain Thomas Summers, Daniel Williams, Christopher Lynch, and Retired Correction Officer Charles Billups, all received Lifetime membership awards along with their Lifetime membership Gold Card.

In Honor of the NYC Correction Guardians Association, Chief Davis presented Deputy Warden Kenneth William, Carlton Newton, and COBA Executive board member Karen Belfield with a Guardians award for the outstanding work they have done for the people of Haiti.

I want to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Monique Johnson (Treasurer Larry Johnson's wife), Executive Secretary Mary Love, and Business Manager Ret. Warden William Thomas for the outstanding work they have done to make this event such a huge success.

Food- For- Thought

By Monique Carpenter-Ellison,

"Information is Key"

As both your Sgt-At-Arms and Communication Director, I would like to take this opportunity to express to the membership and others how important your well being is to this executive board. We strive to maintain the highest level of professionalism both within this organization and throughout the department. We are proactive organizations viewed as both positive and professional.

Because our proceeds provide a public service, we're asking that you continue to support us at every function that we sponsor, Again, I want to thank each of you who made our scholarship event at the Green Tree Country Club a success.

Please monitor your information board inside your facility for Correction Guardian updates or events and understand that word of mouth can be conceived as a rumor, so we ask that you direct all your questions and concerns to: sgtatarms8190@aol.com or joinus@nyccorrectionguardians.com and I will add you to the Correction Guardians Communication Email list.

You can also send me your mobile phone number for any and all Guardian alerts, and updates from the entire executive board.

WILLIAM THOMAS,

DELEGATES:

BUSINESS MANAGER

The Executive Board is always looking for new ideas and energy, we believe that if you are not part of the solution, you remain part of the problem so get involved and lend your expertise to this organization. Join some of the committees.

RULES & RUGULATIONS

This executive board believes that EDUCATION should be on- going, not when a promotional exam is arising. I hope these questions will stimulate you to become a wiser Officer who has a future desire to one day run this department. In the words of my mentor ADW Felipe Laboriel "they're only 3 ways Right Way, Wrong Way, and the Jailhouse Way".....So Study"

Jerome L. Rice, 2nd Vice President

Guardian Spotlight

Linda Annette Eaddy

Linda Annette Eaddy born in Harlem, New York, raised and nurtured by Joseph and Sylvia Eaddy in a household with strong spiritual and political values. Taught to love God first and family second, the Eaddy family extended this love to their community. Linda's love for others began at very early age, Sylvia Eaddy, the matriarch of the family, made it abundantly clear that we are our brother's keeper. Linda's educational journey: The NYC Board of Education System, City College and finally The College for Human Services. Religious Education, Transfiguration Lutheran church, Harlem NY, Bethel Gospel Assembly Bible College, Harlem NY, New Greater Bethel Bible Institute, Queens Village, NY and The Full Gospel Bible College, Jamaica, NY. Linda is also a Certified Alcohol Substance Abuse Counselor (CASAC); and received certification in Mental Health, Domestic Violence, and HIV/AIDS counseling.

Employed by the NYC Department of Corrections for 22 years, Linda has held several positions; as a Supervisor in the Counseling Unit, Supervisor over the Work Release Department, Addiction Treatment Counselor, HIV/AIDS Comprehensive Case Manager and presently, Coordinator for the Faith in Reentry program, Ministerial/Volunteer Services. All accomplishments acquired through the dedication of helping others can only be attributed to Gods glory. All good work that has been done and will be done is inspired by God alone.

People if you are not sure on how things are suppose to be done, you can do two things: 1) Ask your immediate supervisor 2) Keep up on your rules & regulations, directives, operations orders and all amendments and changes. Because the time of us being viewed negatively in the newspapers has to STOP.

It is my motivation to encourage you to read the materials that this department has provided you, for two reasons:

- 1) To move up to the next level &
- 2) To protect your JOB.

Mission Statement

The Correction Guardian Association is an Organization comprised of African-American uniformed, non-uniformed and civilian employees of the NYC Department of Correction. Our Mission is to provide a strong African-American forum for the purpose of resolving any bias, unethical or discriminatory treatment. To provide guidelines to our members with mentorship, networking and training that will enhance our knowledge and professionalism. To provide positive role models for the department, our families and our communities. The Organization will initiate and foster measures to improve group relations within the department, and in the communities of its members. Promote and further the accepted concepts of modern penology towards the professionalism of its members. Improve the social standings of its members.

To combat injustice wherever it may exists.
